

Miller Elementary School Newsletter December 2022

Miller Holiday Production

Please join us for this year's holiday production "A Gingerbread Christmas".

Date: December 15

Time: 6:30 pm

Place: Horizon Credit Union Centre

Don't forget our annual bake sale!

If you are unable to attend the evening show, please feel free to join us for the dress rehearsal matinee at 1:30.

Scholastic Book Fair

Thank you to all who shopped at our annual Scholastic Book Fair. We met our goal of $2000 by selling $2232.77 of merchandise! Our 30% profit in rewards (minus taxes and fees) came to a total of $604.67 earned for our library!

Our Door prize winner Was Emma Dee Marshall who won $25 of books for her classroom and $25 of books for herself.

Thank you also to the families who purchased books for their child's classroom libraries. Special thanks to Mrs. Coleman and Ms. Alexander for their hard work.

Christmas Donations to Food Bank

In lieu of gift exchanges this year, Miller School students may bring monetary or non-perishable food donations to the school. Our staff will pass these on to the Melville and District Food Bank.

Milk Fees

Please be advised that due to rising costs, our individual milk price will be going up from $0.75 to $1.00 effective January 4, 2023.

Milk cards will remain at the rate of $10.00 for 12 milk.

Painted Hand Casino Grant

Thank you so much!! to the Painted Hand Casino. Their generous donation will allow Miller School to have outdoor student celebrations in style. The monies received were used to purchase a new large scale BBQ. We are excited to come together to celebrate our students and families with some excellent food in the near future.

Thank you to Kiersten Frick for her hard work on the Painted Hand Casino Grant.

THANK YOU!
thank you!

Grade 5 student Blake Reinheimer accepts a cheque for $750.00 on behalf of the school from Peter Barry of TCRC 764.
